Subject: Sponsoring one Award for the bright students of "International Conference on Nanotechnology for Better Living" NBL-21 from 07-11 April, 2021

Esteemed Sir,

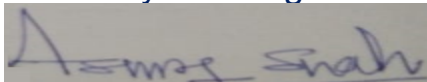

The 7th edition of biennial International Conference on Nanotechnology for Better Living (NBL-21) is being organized by NIT Srinagar (J&K) in association with the prestigious institutions including yours. Multidisciplinary functional materials research is essential to innovation and as such, researchers working in various fields will gather at the SKUAST-K auditorium from 07-11 April, 2021, to promote and share their findings and to exchange cutting edge ideas in an effort to foster fruitful research networking amongst colleagues/collaborators. The summit is also expected to provide a platform to discuss path breaking research ideas and applications of nanomaterials for the betterment of humanity during these hard days. The abstract submission for oral and poster contribution is open until the January 30, 2021 and the details can be had from www.icnbl.org.

We have made arrangements for the pre-conference tutorials for our bright UG/PG students who are supposed to work on innovative projects in their final year as envisaged in New Education Policy and to address the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). Thus, dedicated sessions, "Seeding Nanoscience to Young Minds" and "Nurturing minds for a better world" shall be conducted during the conclave, thus handing over this multidisciplinary science to our young and smart generation. For them we have instituted the following few awards.

- (i) NBL-21 Innovation Award for patents and technology transfer
- (ii) NBL-21 Young Scientists Award for publications in high impact journals
- (iii) NBL-21 UG/PG Students Award for best poster presentation
- (iv) NBL-21 Woman Researchers Award for unique contribution in Science
- (v) NBL-21 Best Scientists Award for his/her contribution

Please sponsor atleast one award, which shall be presented by your goodself on the inaugural function as a token of love from NIT Mizoram. Your magnanimous support and scholarly fascinations has been acknowledged time and again in past. We look forward to your kind cooperation and look forward to receive your goodself along with eminent guests to bless us by your presence on 07th of April, 2021.

With very best regards

Dr. M A Shah
